This matter was referred to the Office of Administrative Hearings by the Minnesota Public Utilities Commission and assigned to Administrative Law Judge Manuel J. Cervantes (ALJ). On January 2, 2009, the ALJ ordered an indefinite suspension of the proceedings pursuant to the request of the parties. On July 30, 2009, the Minnesota Department of Commerce (Department) advised the ALJ that it had completed its analysis of the disputed files and would be sharing its information with the parties to facilitate negotiations.

The Department further advised that Desktop Media, Inc. may no longer be an operating company. Desktop Media, Inc. and/or Jaguar Communications, Inc. should be prepared to address the questions concerning the remaining assets of Desktop Media, Inc. and the extent Jaguar Communications, Inc. is responsible for the debts of Desktop Media, Inc. at the prehearing conference.

Pursuant to the Commission's direction, a prehearing conference will be held on August 4, 2010 at 9:30 a.m. in the Small Hearing Room at the Public Utilities Commission, 121 Seventh Place East, Suite 350, St. Paul, Minnesota 55101-2147.
